Call 449 if you fail to get the Kentuckian promptly. And if you have a news item, phone it to the same number.

Recent allied raids on Cologne, Germany, killed 146 persons and threw the city into a panic, the State Department was informed yesterday. The time is rapidly approaching when German cities within reach will be made uninhabitable by allied domination of the air. For every shell fired on Paris a ton of explosives should be dropped on Cologne, Mannheim, Metz and other cities.

The presence of one or more U-boats on this side of the Atlantic is annoying but they can do but little harm without a base, sinking little unarmed sailing vessels. The scarce they created yesterday was out of proportion to their importance. If they succeed in making a safe getaway, they will be in great luck.

The Kentuckian gives the news without sensational coloring and sees no occasion to get excited over the sinking of a few little schooners, too small to even waste torpedoes on. Let the war go on with a stout heart in every American's bosom.

FOLLOWING THE FLAG

A letter has been received from Guy and Austin Smithson, son and nephew of C. W. Smithson, of Oak Grove, stating that they left Camp Sherman, Ohio, last Sunday and were on their way to some sailing point. They are members of Battery A, 323 Field Artillery, 83rd Division. He is very hopeful of passing this time and expects to go to Great Lakes. Mr. Venable is the valuable assistant to Manager Stockley of the Princess and Rex Theatres, which position he gives up to serve his country.

Private Raymond W. Gray, of Camp Taylor, was at home Sunday on a short furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gray, of near Oak Grove. He left Monday morning and stopped off at Bowling Green for a few hours' visit. His regiment leaves Camp Taylor in a few days for Camp Sherman, Ohio, and be there just a short time before leaving for France.

SOUTH MAIN ST. TO BE REBUILT

COMMISSIONERS SO ASSURE A COMMITTEE AT MEETING YESTERDAY—LIGHT OR DINANCE POSTPONED.

No action was taken by the City Commissioners yesterday on the Electric Light ordinance. By agreement the matter went over until next Tuesday to give the officials of the Kentucky Public Service Co. a formal hearing. The committee to meet with the representatives of the company, appointed by the H. B. M. A., held a conference and will recommend that the ordinance increasing rates be given its final hearing.

The Commissioners made it clear that the privilege asked for by the Kentucky Public Service Co. will be denied.

A committee of eight or ten South Main street property owners appeared before the Board and asked that Main street be improved. The Commissioners promptly assured the committee that the rebuilding of the street was in contemplation and that it was only a question of being able to get labor and material. Mayor Bassett has already taken up the proposition of getting Rock Asphalt, the same material used on Virginia street.

PRESIDENT GETS $127.50 CAKE.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—At 2:10 o'clock this afternoon President Wilson was presented an ornately decorated cake weighing ten pounds and in quality fit for an epicure. The presentation was made by R. S. Dulin, who came all the way from Madisonville, Ky., for the purpose of bringing the cake with him. In the recent Red Cross drive in Hopkins county, Ky., Mrs. J. K. Hayes, of Hanson, baked a ten pound cake, decorated it and gave it to the Red Cross which sold for $27.50. The purchaser gave it back to the Red Cross. Then twenty men in Hopkins county conceived the idea of giving it to the president. They chipped in $5 each, bought the cake for $100 and are sending Mr. Dulin with it to Washington.

Rep. Kincheloe and Vernon Richardson, Senator James' secretary accompanied Dulin to the white house to deliver the cake.

AIR RAIDS ARE EXPECTED IN NEW YORK

(By International News Service.) New York, June 4.—New York City lights are dimmed tonight presumably owing to the danger of submarines and possible hostile airplanes. The people are instructed that in case of an air raid a warning by whistles will be given and to repair to cellars.

GOING LIKE HOT CAKES

CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS ARE BEING SOLD BY BELGIAN RELIEF COMMITTEE.

The Lincoln Chautauqua will begin a seven days season here Friday with the following attractive program for the first day:

2:30 p. m.—Popular Musical Program—Metropolitan Trio.
3:15 p. m.—"Tolerably Good People"—Booth Lowrey.
7:30 p. m.—Musical Entertainment—Metropolitan Trio.
8:15 p. m.—Lecture—The Devil and the Kaiser.—Lincoln McConnell.

The season opens with two concerts by the Metropolitan Male Trio. Their youth and ginger insures the sparkle of life and comedy that makes a program of surpassing merit. Their voices blend in ideal harmony. They play upon the chimes, render solos, humorous readings and do ensemble work. Their concerts are distinctive and different. It is the right kind of a company for a big opening day.

It is believed Lincoln McConnell will get here the first day and be on the night program. If not, he will come later in the week. The ladies of the Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense were out selling the guaranty tickets yesterday. After selling 600 they share in the proceeds of the rest and expect in this way to realize a nice sum for the Belgian Relief Fund. The tickets sell for $2.50 for the season. Nearly everybody is taking from one to a dozen tickets.

LITTLE DONE BY FISCAL COURT

The Fiscal Court held a lengthy session yesterday for the consideration of several matters of importance but the only matter definitely decided, other than allowing the usual claims and hearing various reports, was the appropriation of $35 to be paid monthly to the Health and Welfare Leagues for the support of a visiting nurse. The City Commissioners have appropriated a like sum. These moneys supplemented by donations from other sources may enable the League to employ two nurses instead of one as at present.

The court received bids on auto trucks for road-building purposes but deferred the matter of purchasing till the 17th and appointed a committee to investigate and report the kind of truck, etc., to buy.

The matter of making the common school tax levy was also deferred till a later date. The annual report of County Supt. Foster and the County Board was read and discussed.

Several road matters were discussed but no definite action was taken on anything of importance.

Miss Helen Hendricks, of Chicago, formerly of Madisonville, will go to France as a Y. M. C. A. worker. The last total eclipse in America was in 1869.

Rear Admiral Fletcher, commandant of the Norfolk navy yard, said two U-boats had been sighted off the Virginia capes and Rear Admiral McLean, commandant of the fifth naval district said in addition to these two others were reported off the coast of New Jersey and one off the coast of North Carolina.

Neither officer had been advised of any engagement between American warships and the U-boats.

Fifty-nine volunteers, 15 of them Kentuckians, enlisted at Evansville Monday.

ALLIES ARE LOOKING TO US TO TIP THE SCALE OF VICTORY

WILL WEIGH THE BABIES

GOVERNMENT REQUESTS THAT ALL BABIES UNDER 5 BE MEASURED AND WEIGHED.

Acting upon the request of the U. S. Government that all babies, both white and colored, under 5 years of age be measured and weighed and records kept in accord with the government regulations and standards, the committee for Christian county has set June 12 (next Wednesday) as the day for this work.

The babies will all be taken to the places designated by the committee and will be measured and weighed by someone appointed for that purpose. For those who cannot take or send their babies to these stations the government has this to say:

"Where parents cannot take their children to the examining station, they may get the cards and make the record themselves. The fair standard for children of a given age will be printed on each card. Thus parents can judge for themselves of the development of their children. Any great deviation from the standard may be regarded as a warning. Children who vary from it should be carefully looked after and if possible a physician should see each one of such children."

Huns Are Driven Back After Entering One New Point 43 Miles From Paris.

(By International News Service.) London, June 4.—The American troops in France constitute the decisive weight which will tip the scale of victory on the Allied side. Upon them the Allied military chiefs and statesmen pin unshakable hopes for defeating the German in his effort to exhaust the Allied reserves. Full and frank credit to United States was given in an official statement issued to-night regarding the sixth session of the Allied supreme war council.

Washington, June 4.—Gen. Pershing's communique to-night mentions the United States troops in every active theatre of war save Flanders. He confirms the report of gallant actions in Neuilly Wood and on the Marne.

When the news of American exploits arrived it caused sort of jubilee throughout Washington. Americans on the Marne are for the first time first line effectives and unmistakably showed that the United States has actually become a vital factor in the fighting.

Paris, June 4.—The day was marked by local attacks of the enemy in relaxing and driving tactics, an official night communique says.

Germans temporarily penetrated the forest of Villers Da Cotterets 43 miles southeast of Paris but French counter attacks threw the invaders back upon the eastern outskirts of the village, an official night communique says.

Washington, June 4.—Secretary Daniels issued a statement tonight saying that it is indicated that eleven vessels were sunk by German submarines off the Atlantic coast.

French Gain Ground.

Paris, June 4.—French troops improved their positions north of Moulin Sur Touvent and southwest of Soissons, gaining some ground, the war office announced tonight.

LOST NO TIME.

(By International News Service.) With American Army France, June 4.—Within three hours after reaching the front line in the Champagne battlefield, our machine guns opened fire on the enemy with telling effect.

AMERICANS ARE GIVEN CHANCE

OUR SERVICE FLAG

Archie Roosevelt is recovering from his wounds received in March.

Gen. Freshing denies flatly the Hun claim that they had captured a big American supply depot at Fere-en-Tardenois, for the good and sufficient reason that there was no depot located there.

One prisoner taken by Americans is a Russian who says he was forced into the German army against his will. He was delighted to be captured and even German prisoners seem well pleased, especially at meal times.

Naval officers hold to the opinion that five submarines are operating on the Atlantic coast and have been for two weeks. They have attacked no vessels bound overseas and armed for a fight. Only one—an oil tanker —had any military value. The crews of some of the craft destroyed have been brought into port with a story of eleven days' imprisonment aboard an enemy submarine. During that period scores of troop and supply ships have passed in and out on business of crushing the German army in France. The U-boat found no weak link in the chain of armed craft that guarded them. In the attacks upon coasting vessels almost in sight of the New Jersey shore, naval officers see a frantic admission from Berlin that the submarine has failed. American armed power is rolling overseas in ever-increasing force, despite the utmost exertions of the undersea pirates off the coasts of Europe. Now the raiders have crossed the seas and lurked for days near America's greatest ports. They no doubt, were sent to sink transports, but here again they failed.
Blocked off the troop ships by convoy craft, they have turned in fury against defenseless coasters.

FISHING BOATS SUNK.

Twelve of a fleet of thirty or forty fishing vessels which left Irish ports on the night of May 30, were sunk
by a German submarine, says a Belfast dispatch to the Daily Telegram.
The submarine suddenly appeared in the midst of the fleet and ordered the fishermen to take to the boats and row ashore. It sank the vessels by shelling them. The fishermen say the submarine was interrupted in its work and submerged, which probably prevented destruction of the entire fleet. The fishermen lost all their gear but there were no casualties.

ADMIT 40,000

An official dispatch from Switzerland today says that the naval commission of the German reichstag is to examine in the near future question brought forward by the lists as to how it is possible that so many of enemy troops have been able to land in France in one in spite of the submarine war.
Apparently the German societ have yet to learn that many times number of American soldiers landed in France last month.

LEST WE FORGET

The Battle of the Marne Sept. 5 to 12, 1914.

The Allies began a general attack on the Meaux-Sezanne-Vitry le Francois-Verdun front. Holding the Germans fast in the center, the French left with the troops of the Paris garrison and the British army struck desperately toward Soissons and, on September 9, 1914, succeeded in hurling the German invaders back against the Marne, which has given its name to the battle, which lasted until September 12.

For a time Von Kluck's army was in the gravest plight, but he extricated himself by forced marches. A desperate German attack on the French center at Vitry le Francois was repulsed, and then Gen. Foch struck what was perhaps the decisive blow by taking advantage of a weak spot between the lines of Von Buelow and the Wuertemberg army, and throwing the Prussian guards in great disorder into the marshes of St. Gond. This determined a retreat along the entire German front to a point behind the Soissons-Rheims line, and it was accounted a severe defeat administered to the Crown Prince's army in the Argonne, by which Verdun was definitely placed beyond the reach of the invaders.

The Germans then dug themselves into positions on a range of hills
north of the Aisne that Bluecher once boasted he could hold against the world with 80,000 men.

Thus Germany, with its war machine at the highest efficiency, after years of effort, failed to destroy France.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS WILL FIND POLITICAL POT AT BOILING POINT TOMORROW

(By International News Service.)

Milwaukee, June 4.—When the members of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America gather in Milwaukee tomorrow from all States of the Union they will find the political pot-boiling most merrily.

In the past the headquarters of this association of cattle breeders has been in the East, and the executive officers of the organization have been chosen from among Eastern candidates. This year an effort is being made to launch more progressive and aggressive policies in the organization. It is expected that Wisconsin and certain of the other Western states will be leaders in the movement.

Opposition has developed to the national secretary, Mr. F. L. Houghton, of Brattleboro, Vermont, and there is a possibility that the delegates from Wisconsin and other Middle Western and Western States may unite on one of their number for this important position.

Among those whose names are being mentioned for the secretaryship are W. L. Baird, of Waukesha; Chris J. Schroeder, of Racine; A. J. Glover, of Fort Atkinson, and H. H. Kildeer, of St. Paul, Minn.

It is also reported that many of the Western delegates are working for the removal of the general offices from Vermont to some Western point, it being argued that the interests of the breed would be best served if headquarters were located more centrally.

FACING PROHIBITED.

Orders to prohibit speculation in dried peaches, apples, prunes and raisins were promulgated by the Food Administration yesterday; also a rule prohibiting facing of dried fruits in packages. The new orders were received in a telegram from Washington by Federal Food Administrator, Mr. Fred Sackett.

The new regulations amend Rule 1 governing licensed preparers and packages to read as follows: "The licensee prior to July 15 of the year in which new crop fruits are to be grown and packed shall not buy, contract to buy, offer for sale or have outstanding any contract of sale or any commitment for sale of new crop fruits not available for spot delivery.
A commitment shall include all tentative or conditional orders, whether definite prices are named or not."

Rule 2 is amended so as to include this provision, "The licensee shall not face or cause to be faced any licensed dried fruits in any package.
Such facing will be regarded as a wasteful practice."

wedge. And in this the French have been so far successful. Now, unless the Germans can widen their salient, which, between the Vesle and Soissons, is not more than a dozen miles wide and of equal depth, they will not only have to halt, but to retreat, since their flanks and rear are badly threatened.

In a word, the Germans have been and are thrusting into a narrow pocket. If they can widen this pocket by an attack on the west side, all the allied line east and west of the Oise between Soissons and Montdidier will be in danger of envelopment and Foch may have to make a long retreat. If they can widen it to the eastward, Rheims will go, and with it all the high ground north of the Marne and west of Chalons. This would mean a dislocation of the allied front so great as to put Verdun in jeopardy and threaten the line north of Toul.

But the Germans must widen their gap. They have reached and possibly passed the point of safety, so far as direct advance is concerned. If the French and British maintain their present position, then, although the German thrust may reach the Marne and temporarily cut the Paris-Chalons-Nancy, it will have the character of a raid and will be followed by a rapid retreat in a brief time.

As to the allied course, it is clear that so far Foch has been compelled to follow the precedent of the Amiens defense and canalise an attack he could not immediately stop by frontal resistance. In the case of Amiens, the German tide was slowly constricted between the Ancre and Avre rivers until the apex of the wedge became so narrow it was unsafe to advance further.

At that time the world looked for a French counter-offensive on the flank of the German advance between Noyon and Montdidier. Now exactly the same invitation is held out by the side of the new German salient between Chateau Thierry and Soissons. If Foch can spare the reserves this is the answer to be expected, and if such a counter-offensive were successful, the German thrust might collapse in a real disaster.

But, on the other hand it is well to remember that the Germans have the reserves necessary for a second thrust exactly like that made two months ago in Flanders after the Picardy offensive had been checked and any weakening of the allied line west of the Oise for a counter-offensive in the east would inevitably be followed by an attack on the west which might have very grave consequences. Therefore, it is more than likely that Foch will again content himself with checking the German thrust and permitting the Germans to hold most, if not all, of their newly conquered ground.

In sum, the third battle of the Aisne has now reached the point where a solution must come quickly. Three solutions are possible. (1) The German may now widen the salient he has created and produce a great dislocation of the allied line, a dislocation which may lead to a retirement on both sides of the Oise between Chateau Thierry and Montdidier or between Dormans and Suippes.

(2) The Germans may fail to widen their salient and have to halt and probably retire out of the apex of the salient now close to the Marne at Chateau Thierry and Dormans.

(3) The allies may counter attack on the eastern or western side of the German salient and compel a general retirement and possibly bring off a considerable local success.

But if the Germans fail to widen their salient and are not compelled to use up more divisions in averting a threatened disaster we may confidently look for a new German attack of major proportions at some other point. Such an attack would exactly follow the lines of the attack in Flanders in April after the March drive in Picardy had been halted before Amiens.

It would be a mistake to attach too great importance to any check in Champagne now. We must expect several weeks of desperate effort on the part of the German and at best one more great thrust, for we know that he has not used more than half of his available divisions in the present gamble. On the other hand, unless there is some further collapse in the allied lines, particularly on the side of the salient, it would seem as if this thrust would come to an end in a few hours, and it is the sides and not the point of the wedge that must be watched.

MINUTE DIRECTIONS GIVEN BY GOVERNMENT AS TO HOW TO REPLY TO QUESTIONS OF YOUR REGISTRAR OF THOSE BECOMING OF AGE SINCE JUNE 5, 1917.

1—NAME IN FULL. AGE IN YEARS. Give your first, middle and last name, and your age in years, disregarding months, weeks and days.

2—HOME ADDRESS. Give the street and number, the village or city, and the county and State in which you reside, as "232 Main street, Chicago, Cook County, Illinois," or "R. F. D. No. 2, Jonesville, Ohio."

3—DATE OF BIRTH. Give the month, day and year of your birth. To be required to register you must have been born in 1896, in a month and on a day prior to or on June 5 of that year.

4—WHERE WERE YOU BORN? First name the city or town, then the State or nation; as "Columbus, Ohio," "Vienna, Austria," "Paris, France," "Sofia, Bulgaria."

5—ARE YOU (1) A NATIVE OF THE UNITED STATES; (2) A NATURALIZED CITIZEN; (3) AN ALIEN; (4) HAVE YOU DECLARED YOUR INTENTION TO BECOME A CITIZEN; (5) OR ARE YOU A CITIZEN OR NONCITIZEN INDIAN? (SPECIFY WHICH.)

(1) If you were born in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, you are a native of the United States, no matter what may have been the citizenship or nationality of your parents. If you were born abroad you are still a citizen of the United States if your father was a citizen of the United States at the time you were born, unless you have expatriated yourself.

(2) You are a naturalized citizen if you have completed your naturalization; that is, if you have "taken final papers." But you are not a citizen if you have only declared your intention to become a citizen (that is, if you have only "taken out first papers.")

You are also a naturalized citizen if, although foreign born, your father or surviving parent became fully naturalized while you were under twenty-one years of age, and if you were in the United States at the time you attained the age of twenty-one.

(3) You are a declarant if, although a citizen or subject of some other country, you have declared before a naturalization court your intention to become a citizen of the United States. Receipt from the clerk of the court of the certified copy of such declaration is often called "taking out first papers."

(4) An Indian is a citizen if (1) he, or his father or mother, prior to his birth, or before he attained the age of twenty-one, was allotted prior to May 8, 1906; (2) if he was allotted subsequent to May 8, 1906, and received a patent in fee to his land; (3) if he was residing in the old Indian Territory on March 3, 1901; (4) if he lives separate and apart from his tribe and has adopted the habits of civilized life.

(5) If you do not fall within one of the four classes above mentioned, you will state that you are an alien.

6—IF NOT A CITIZEN, OF WHAT NATION ARE YOU A CITIZEN OR SUBJECT?—This need be answered only by those who are classified as aliens or declarants. If an alien or declarant, state the name of your country, as "France," "Great Britain," "Germany," etc.

7—FATHER'S BIRTHPLACE.—First name the city or town, then the State or nation; as "Columbus, Ohio," "Vienna, Austria," "Paris, France," "Sofia, Bulgaria."

8—NAME OF EMPLOYER. PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT.—If you are working for an individual, firm, corporation or association, state its name. If in business, trade, profession or employment for yourself, so state. If you are an officer of the state or federal government, say whether your office is under the United States, the State, county or a municipality. In answer to the question as to the place of employment, give the street and number, the village or city, and the county and State where you work; as, "232 Main street Chicago, Cook County, Illinois," or, "R. F. D. No. 2, Jonesville, Ohio."

9—NAME AND ADDRESS OF NEAREST RELATIVE.—If you are married and your wife is living, her name should be stated. If you are single or your wife is dead, you should state the name of your nearest blood relative. In stating the address give the street and number, the city or village, and the county and State, or if your nearest relative does not live in the United States give the name of the city or village and the nation, as "Liverpool, England."

10—RACE—WHITE, NEGRO, INDIAN OR ORIENTAL. NO explanation necessary.

LISTEN TO UNCLE SAM

The Government desires to impress upon all patriotic Americans that it is just as much your duty to buy your winter supply of coal AT ONCE as it to subscribe to the Red Cross and Liberty Loans.

You should protect yourself at home against a fuel shortage this fall and winter; while at the same time you are serving our boys who are doing the fighting by releasing cars and transports for their use during the summer and winter.

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU GIVE THIS YOUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION.

Farmers cannot afford to delay getting their coal NOW, as it is as necessary as producing crops. Do not overlook an opportunity to haul a load of coal whenever you have a wagon in town.

If everyone pulls together, starts early and put their supply in now, it will avoid shortage, congestion and suffering, and will, no doubt, eliminate "Heatless Days" next winter.

The Government has designated June 3rd to 7th as the time in which to order your coal. Do not overlook this.

If you are not going to order coal please be patriotic and go to work on chopping and saving wood.

FOUR YOUNG PATRIOTS

WORKED HARD ALL DAY AND NETTED TWENTY-ONE FIFTY FOR RED CROSS.

For business ingenuity and persistence in effort the public might learn a lesson from the four young patriots who stood on the street all day Saturday and sold lemonade for the benefit of the Red Cross. These four children were Florence Bellamy, age 9; Josephine Bellamy, age 11; Emma Peel, age 11; and Maggie Peel, age 13.

These four youngsters began business Saturday morning on $1.50 capital given them by Mr. Robert Bellamy and a big goods box and a few glasses and a dish pan. With the $1.50 they purchased lemons, ice, and sugar and began the business of selling lemonade at 5c per glass. A big crowd was in town and trade began to come their way. When they found their stock running low they took some change out of the cash box and restocked their supplies and continued in business.

At the close of their day's work, which was a late hour in the day, they counted their cash, repaid the $1.50 capital, and turned over $21.75 to the West Side School for the Red Cross. These young children are naturally "much tickled" over their great showing and will conduct another sale at some appropriate time.

LOCAL BOARD IS AT WORK

RECLASSIFYING REGISTRANTS AND MAKING CHANGES WHERE CONDITIONS WARRANT.

The Local Draft Board is busy these days making changes and reclassifying the registrants where conditions are found to warrant making a change in the class of any registrant. This is developing into quite a lot of work and involves considerable investigation on the part of the Board.

As time passes and the war progresses and readjustments take place, the Local Board has found that there are many registrants in classes 3 and 4 that should be under the new orders, in class one. A few are asking to be reclassified but there are some who are seeking to evade being changed from classes 2, 3, and 4 to class one.

The Local Board specially requests anyone who knows of a registrant who is in a deferred class and should be in class one to report such person to the Board at its office in Hopkinsville. It is rumored that there are several young men throughout the county who by agricultural or other claims were put in the 3rd or 4th class but in reality are not justly entitled, under the conditions, to such deferred classification. In fact, it has been said that if a person knows of a case that should be reported and fails or refuses to do so he is not a good citizen. The Government expects every man, woman and child to do his duty.

MEETING A GREAT NEED.

The lawyers of Hopkinsville bar got together yesterday and presented a resolution to his honor, Judge Bush, requesting that all the juries be dismissed for the present term of court just as soon as the urgent commonwealth cases are finished in order that those who are farmers may return to their farms and look after their crops at this critical time. Judge Bush acceded to this request and will order the juries dismissed at the earliest possible moment when the most urgent cases are tried.

MID-WEEK PRAYER MEETING.

Dr. Powell has not been able to attend a mid-week prayer meeting in three months, but he is getting to be himself again, and wishes to meet the entire membership of his congregation as far as possible tonight at prayer meeting.

The prayer meeting will be converted into an open conference in the interest of the Sunday School, and what we can do to improve both attendance and work.

LONDON MILLINERY FOR CIVILIANS

The very latest line in hats for men and women is on display in London shops, and there is nothing fancy about them, for they are steel helmets, the sort worn by the troops in the trenches. These helmets are a defense against shrapnel, and already many men and women in London are wearing them because of air raids.

PRINCESS TO-DAY.

"The Square Deceiver" is a comedy-drama of youth and love. Comedy is abundantly mixed with impressive serious moments. The ever popular Harold Lockwood, as Billy Van Dyke, has a most congenial role. Van Dyke is a young multi-millionaire, and his favor is much sought by fortune-hunting mothers of marriageable daughters. But Billy eludes them all, and in the guise of a chauffeur meets and wins his "dream girl," who loves him for himself alone. "The Square Deceiver" is by the author of Harold Lockwood's former success, "The Haunted Pajamas."

JUNE WEDDINGS.

The groom is a very prominent and influential business man and farmer of Cerulean and a man of wide acquaintance and influence. He is 58 years of age, and this is his second marriage.

Major-Backus.

John M. Major, of the south part of the county, and a farmer, and Miss Sudie Backus, of Gracey, a daughter of Dr. Backus, will be married today at Gracey. The groom is a prosperous farmer and the bride is popular and well known throughout the county, having taught several rural schools.

HISTORIC STRUCTURES

HAS OUR COUNTY A BUILDING OVER 50 YEARS OLD WORTH A PLACE IN HISTORY?

We have been asked by the Courier-Journal at Louisville, which is celebrating its semi-centenary by publishing interesting historical facts about every section of the State, to give our people an opportunity to select the oldest and most historical building in this county.

The Courier-Journal will print pictures and brief sketches of those chosen for the different counties. These will appear daily during this summer and fall, in a series of 120 articles—one to each county—entitled, "What Kentucky Has Done in the Past Fifty Years," concluding with the issue of November 8, which is the Courier-Journal's Golden Jubilee day, having on November 8, 1868, succeeded the Louisville Daily Journal, which was started in 1830, the Louisville Daily Democrat, begun in 1843, and the Morning Courier, first issued in 1844.

The Courier-Journal wants for the article on our county a picture of and brief story about the oldest building—church, school, home, business or Government structure.

Use the coupon below. Fill it out, write plainly with pen or pencil, and bring or mail to our office on or before June 15.

We will announce in our paper, as soon as the coupons have been canvassed, the building found to be the oldest in the county. The Courier-Journal will furnish us with a half-tone illustration together with the article to appear on our county, and we will reproduce these immediately following their appearance in the Courier-Journal.

Three leading citizens of our county will be asked by us to canvass the coupons when all are in. In case of a tie, this committee will make a choice and the decision will be final.
